BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 10.—
When you see the other fellow throwing trash upon the street, just call up the policeman as he's rounding out his beat; the judge will do the balance and the fine must then be paid, to punish the offender for the ugly trick he played.

This jangle is running through every head in New Orleans. Francois reads it as he idles over his late coffee and roll at Antoine's in the old French quarter. Fernandez and Beatrice read it above the window of the street car as they rub their sleepy eyes in the early hours between home and the cigar factory.
Sam Bowie Houston Crockett Jefferson, proud scion of a migrated Texas family, reads it on the billboard as he trudges to the warehouse to check cotton receipts.
Whenever the people get tired of reading one jingle the poet laureate of the city hall produces another one of his vest pocket odes on civic righteousness. For this is one of the methods by which the New Orleans commissioners are striving to foster community spirit. And it works. The rhythmic injunction about trash has helped to make New Orleans, which had open sewers along its streets a generation ago, one of the cleanest cities in the United States.

Villain Took Honors
In New Orleans the conflict between city hall politics and civic reform, which has preceded the adoption of commission government in most other cities, did not happen exactly as the reformers had intended. It was a fairy tale in which the Agreement Was Reached for Surrender

TO NEGOTIATE TROOPS' SURRENDER

No Definite Period is Set For Continuance of Truce But Peace
Is Expected

VIENNA, via Berlin Wireless, Jan. 14.—Cetinje, the capital of Montenegro, has been occupied by Austrian troops, it was officially announced this afternoon.
"Austro-Hungarian troops, pursuing the defeated enemy, entered Cetinje which is unharmed," said the official statement. "The populace is calm."
The Vienna official statement, transmitted through Berlin, carried no confirmation of Rome reports that the Austrian and Montenegrin troops have arranged an armistice, preliminary to Mon-tenegro's surrender.

ROME, Jan. 14.—Montenegro and Austria have reached an armistice which means the virtual surrender and withdrawal from the war of the little ally of the entente. King Nicholas, it is understood, agreed to a truce after Mount Lowen, the Montenegrin stronghold had fallen to the Austrians and the capital was apparently doomed to destruction by Austrian guns mounted on the stronghold. The nation is the first of the allied powers to succumb to the central powers.
Austrian artillery was trained on Cetinje and Austrian gunners were awaiting the signal to lay the Montenegrin capital in ruins, when King Nicholas signed the armistice that virtually eliminates the little mountain country from the war.

The aged Montenegrin ruler wept as he agreed to the truce that probably means Montenegro's surrender, according to dispatches received here today. He called his military commanders about him first and expressed a willingness to take to the mountains and fight the Austrian in-vad-ers to the end. They persuaded him that continuation of the struggle without outside aid meant greater misery to his people than was suffered by the Serbians or Belgians.

render of the half-starved, poorly-equipped little Montenegrin army

TWO HIGH SCHOOL EXTRA CARS ARE ON THIS MORNING

Additional Service Will Be
Morning Feature Mr.
Hedges Says

CROWDED SERVICE LAST NIGHT

Men Stand Upon Fenders of Packed Cars That Leave Business District at Supper Hour

Universal complaint against the inadequacy of the street car service to cope with conditions imposed by the cold caused the addition of two extra cars to the service this morning, it was announced at the office of the company today. The cars ran over the south side and Sixteenth street lines around 8 o'clock, and Superintendent C. L. Hedges said they were put on to furnish better service for high school students.
They were in addition to the 8 o'clock high school car from the north side.

The extras will be continued, Mr.
Hedges said, as a regular morning feature. There were no other extra cars added to the service this morning, and on change was made in schedules, Mr. Simons said.

Passengers on south side cars were forced to transfer in going to and from the business district this morning, owing to the parting of a trolley wire at Fifth and Cass streets.

Complaints of inadequate service last night at the supper hour continued this morning. Cars went up Main street crowded far beyond capacity, and one was seen with every available inch occupied and five men standing on the fender in the rear.
Numbers of men and women waited at downtown corners for half an hour or more, unable to board the cars, and progress of the vehicles was so slow that one complaint was registered by a man living in the vicinity of the Twenty-third street line who was fifty minutes getting home from Fourth and Main streets.

PRICE MAY KNOW FATE BY NIGHT CASE NEAR END

Prosecutor Calls Defendant
a Monster Intimating He Crushed Wife's Skull

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 14.— Frederick T. Price may know by tonight whether the future holds liberty or life imprisonment for him.
The case was expected to go to the jury about four o'clock following the summing up by M. C. Brady, chief counsel for the defense.
County Attorney Armstrong in his address to the jury branded the defendant as a monster, saying that there was no evidence to show that Price had not crushed his wife's head while holding it in his arms.

Not once did Price cringe as he was branded as a monster, a man with blood-stained hands who used his murdered wife's money for another woman. His appearance had improved since the first few days of the trial. His color is no longer a ghastly white and red, but his eyes are bright and his color more normal.

CHILIAN ENVOY RESIGNS HIS POST

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Chilian Ambassador Sarez has resigned his post. Personal reasons were assigned by the embassy in making the announcement today.

LA FOLLETTE AT RACINE

RACINE, Wis., Jan. 14.—Senator Robert M. La Follette addressed a mass meeting here last night, on labor conditions in Wisconsin and how the laws are enforced. This forenoon he spoke at the Racine High school on good citizenship and urged the pupils to take advantage of the opportunities offered for education.

FAVORS FUNDS FOR YARDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The house naval committee today favorably reported a bill appropriating $50,000 and $100,000 respectively, for extending building slips and ways at the Mare Island and New York navy yards to expedite contracts given the yards.

EX-DICTATOR DEAD FIERY CAREER OF HUERTA IS ENDED

Famous Mexican Succumbs to Many Operations; Body Held by the Government

EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 14.—General Victoriano Huerta is dead. The former Mexican dictator died at 8:55 last night in his apartments here after having been operated upon four times in the last two weeks for gall-stones. He had been unconscious since Wednesday night.
The corpse is virtually a prisoner of the United States government with which he nearly went to war when,

Gen. Victoriano Huerta

as Mexico's last dictator, he refused to salute the American flag following the historic Tampico incident.
His wish to die on native Mexican soil was prevented by his arrest and indictment for plotting to invade Mexico to crush Carranza.

The widow plans to seek permission for Huerta's interment near Colotlan, Jalisco, Mexico, his birthplace. Whether the Carranza government will permit it was doubtful, Huerta being held responsible by Carranza for the assassination of President Madero and Vice President Suarez in Mexico City, February 23, 1913.

Arrangements for the funeral were to be made today.

"I am prepared for the other world," were among Huerta's last words, spoken just before he dropped into his last sleep.
"I am content to die. I wish to forgive all my enemies and all who have done wrong toward me. I feel at peace with my God and with men."

Surrounding the bedside was Huerta's entire family except his daughter, Senorita Elena, who was enroute here from New York.

FORD HAD BLOWS WITH DELEGATES BEFORE LEAVING

Schwimmer Papers Discovered to Be Swindle and He Became Discouraged

BY CHARLES P. STEWART.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
THE HAGUE, Jan. 14.—A vivid scene preceded Henry Ford's departure from the peace expedition at Christiana, it was learned here today. Several Ford leaders exchanged blows before Ford sped away in an automobile to catch a train that was to take him to Bergen where he took passage for New York.

This information was obtained from a trustworthy source and with it the "inside story" of events aboard the peace ship Oscar II and in Christiana.

Ford, it was learned, for the first time investigated Mme. Rosika Schwimmer's claims that she had documents from warring and neutral European rulers encouraging the peace movement, after the quarrel aboard ship over President Wilson's preparedness program. He discovered that they were politely phrased declarations of nothing. They were worthless.

OFFICIALS REFUSE M. & J. SUBSCRIPTION VOTED BY COUNCIL

Base Refusal Upon City Attorney's Opinion That Appropriation of $500 Is Not Legal

REQUEST IS MADE THIS WEEK

Officers' Decision Is Conveyed to Secretary Van Auken When He Applies
for Aid in Rate Fight

Basing their determination on a written opinion from City Attorney J. E. Higbee that the appropriation is illegal, city hall officials have refused to give to the Manufacturers' and Jobbers' club $500 voted to that association for aid in their fight for lower freight rates in the city. Demand of the club for the money voted at a council meeting three months ago was formally made Wednesday afternoon by Secretary C. S. Van Auken. He made the request to City Comptroller William J. Fries, and the latter refused to sign the order for the money.

Decision of Officials

The comptroller, City Clerk E. H.
Hoffman, City Treasurer George W.
Young and Mayor A. A. Bentley, after careful reading the city attorney's decision, decided not to sign an order for the money. In view of the widespread belief, based upon Alderman P. W. Mahoney's declaration in the council when the measure was passed, that an injunction would be filed restraining the city from paying the money, they were unwilling to take the responsibility. Comptroller Fries pointed out today that the officials signing the order could be held personally liable for the money if its payment were illegal.

Mayor A. A. Bentley said today that President D. W. MacWillie of the M. & J. club told him the organization intended to wait upon Mr.
Mahoney and ask him to withdraw his objections. Mr. Mahoney said

BENZOATE FIGHT IS RE-OPENED BY EASTERN CONCERN

File Suit for Permanent Injunction Restraining Commissioner Weigle from Enforcing State Law

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 14.—An application for a permanent injunction against George J. Weigle, as dairy and food commissioner, was filed here today before Judge A. L. Sanborn of the federal court by the Curtice Brothers company of Rochester, N. Y., to restrain him from the enforcement of the law prohibiting the sale of food products in Wisconsin containing benzoate of soda.

The Curtice Brothers company claims their products are being kept out of Wisconsin by the benzoate of soda law, that they are within the federal pure food law of 1906, and that benzoate of soda is not deleterious as a food product, under the ruling of the United States depart-

TELEPHONE CASE UP FOR DECISION

Upon the decision in a case being argued by Attorney Frank Winter of La Crosse before the supreme court at Madison today hangs the fate of the Wisconsin physical connection law. It is the first test case of the statute to come before the court since the passage of the measure by the 1911 legislature.

Mr. Winter and Attorney General Walter C. Owen are appearing for the state. The Wisconsin Telephone company appealed the favorable decisions won by Mr. Winter before the railroad commission and the Dane county circuit court.

MRS. MAGELSEN IS BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Magelsen, mother of Rev. H. G.
Magelsen, pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran church, were held at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the home, 511 South Sixth street. Rt.
Rev. J. Nordby bishop of the La Crosse district, officiated. The body will today be taken to Highland Prairie, Minn., where burial will be made.
Funeral services will be held at Highland Prairie.

MURDER LEADERS SHOT MOB SLAYS MEXICANS

Guard Against Further Rioting
EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 14.—Preparations had been made this afternoon to meet the expected recurrence of street rioting tonight.
"A provost guard" of 250 United States infantrymen patrolled the Mexican quarter.
United States cavalry are held in readiness to enter the down-town streets before dark. There were no troops downtown this afternoon.
Brigadier General John J. Pershing in control of the local situation, prohibited the holding of a mass meeting in Cleveland square this afternoon. Ex-Governor George Curry of New Mexico, a member of Roosevelt's "Rough Riders", was to have been the principal speaker at the meeting.

ADMINISTRATION "STANDS PAT" ON MEXICAN POLICY

Announcement Made After Cabinet Meeting That No Troops Will Be Sent Across Border

WORKS LOOKS TO CONGRESS

Senator Has Resolution to Take Matter Out of the Hands of the President

administration will "stand pat" on its present course regarding Mexico, it was officially announced at the White house following the cabinet meeting this afternoon.

This announcement came in the face of direct intimation from England of her interest in recent Mexican outrages, and further criticism in congress.

At the same time direct word came from General Carranza declaring in effect that he can and will handle the situation.

Senator Works introduced a resolution proposing that congress take the matter out of the hands of the president and intervene, but the president is determined to give Carranza a chance to prove himself.

These things happened:
The British embassy arranged for a conference with the state department regarding Mexico.

The first chief wired a message telling his purpose to mete out "condign punishment to the bandits who murdered Americans in Chihuahua." The president discussed the situation with Senator Stone and the latter warmly defended the administration course in a senate speech.

The White house let it be known no United States troops will be sent across the border, for the present at least.

The cabinet, in regular session, considered possible courses of action.

Mr. Grip Germ Get's All That's Coming To Him

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Below zero weather has smashed the backbone of the middle west's grip epidemic, Chicago health officials announced today. A marked decrease in pneumonia cases was reported by Health Commissioner Robertson.
The mercury here hovered between zero and five below throughout the night. The cold wave will be broken late today, the weather bureau predicted.

ZWIEDINEK QUERIES ON VERDI ACTION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Austrian Charge Zwiedinek today cabled his home government at Vienna for "instructions" as to what procedure he shall take in regard to the action of this government in allowing the Italian liner Giuseppe Verdi to leave New York carrying two three-inch guns. His action is expected to result in representations being made to this government on this phase of the submarine controversy, the only one not settled.

TURKS IN PERSIAN TOWN

CONSTANTINOPLE, via Amsterdam, Jan. 14.—Turkish troops have entered the important Persian city of Kermanshah, according to unofficial reports received here today.

CITIZENS BAND FOR INVASION

Indignation Meeting Held and Men Pledge Themselves to Avenge Murders

EL PASO, Jan. 14.—General Jose E. Rodriguez and his chief of staff, Colonel Al-mada, have been killed, according to messages received here, confirming earlier reports that the leaders of the Villistas who murdered the eighteen Americans at Santa Ysabel Monday had been shot.

Rodriguez was detailed to burn the $3,000,000 Pearson mining plant at Madera.
With forty followers he approached the mills to burn them. He was surrounded by American and Mexican residents of Madera and employees of the company and the bandits surrendered.
Rodriguez and Almada were immediately executed and their followers probably will meet the same fate, according to Carranza reports.

The Carranzista version of Rodriguez's capture said it was effected only by Carranza troops. The rumored participation of Americans in the arrest was not mentioned. Colonel Almada, chief of staff to Rodriguez, was declared by the consulate to have been executed.
Rodriguez, who is Villa's chief follower, was reported to have been captured alive and has not yet been executed, according to the con-sulate.

EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 14.—Mobs, infuriated over the slaughter of Americans in Mexico, last night created a reign of terror for Mexicans in El Paso. The streets were swept by the angry Americans and the hospital: today are filled with wounded Mexicans, caught unawares and unable to escape the wrath of the mob.
No deaths are reported.

United States regular troops enforced martial law in the Mexican district of El Paso today.

Rage over the massacre of Americans in Mexico was expected again to over-run all bounds. Mexicans were being deported by the wholesale or thrown into jail to escape mobs of angry American cowboys, cablemen and miners.

American citizens were reported to be secretly organizing a regiment of volunteers to invade Mexico if the Washington and Carranza governments do not take immediate steps to avenge the Santa Ysabel massacre which cost the lives of eighteen Americans.

Clean Out Starts Trouble
The reported massacre of twelve more Americans near Madera threw the city in a frenzy last night. Four United States soldiers "cleaned out" a saloon full of Mexicans wielding knives. That was the signal for mixed mobs of soldiers and civilians who ernment weather bureau

promised for tomorrow, and the kind weather man also promises "rising tempera-

MERLIN HULL HERE BUT NOT TO TALK ABOUT POLITICS

Merlin Hull of Black River Falls, former speaker of the assembly, was in La Crosse today on business. Mr.
Hull was appearing as an attorney in bankruptcy proceedings before Judge C. L. Baldwin. He declined to talk politics.

George Leek, Negro, found guilty of murdering Noah Hoover, a United States war pensioner, at Junker on the Grand Trunk Pacific just west of tenced to be hung April 10, at Fort Saskatchewan. Leek showed no evidence of emotion as the sentence was read.

The TRIBUNE'S
Daily
Short Story

THE LOITERER

BY IZOLA FORRESTER

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

"Oh, I love you of course," Edith flashed back hotly. "Do you suppose for one minute that I'd ever have waited for you to make good if I hadn't? They talk and talk about faith making one strong. Billie Ronalds, if faith could have made you anything at all, you'd have been a master of men now. Just look at the way we've all believed in you."

Billie stood, silent and erect, taking his medicine as he always did. He had been used to it from all branches of his own family, but it was new coming from Edith. They had been tacitly engaged ever since either could remember. In fact, Billie's mother loved to relate how she had proposed formally for her three-year-old son as soon as she had received the announcement card of her birth. Their mothers had been closest friends for years, and their gardens in Linwood Terrace adjoined.

All through his college career Edith had worn his "frat" pins and attended all football events as his special guest of honor. He had taken his degree and had opened up his law office in the new building on City Hall park, but right there things had stopped for Bill. There was a strange dearth of clients. Linwood was a new and thriving town in New Jersey, filled with public-spirited citizens and no criminals. Its law cases were confined to divorce suits and small civil suits of an immaterial nature. There was no chance for Bill to shine in what he hoped would be his line—criminal law. He had had a vivid picture of himself delivering his final address to the jury in many a famous case, saving some poor devil's life for him against all the arrayed panoply of the law. But Linwood remained a peaceful, law-abiding community, and there was no amphitheater of eloquence for any rising young lawyer to make his everlasting name in.

"I cannot invent cases, Edith," he did manage to say.

"I suppose not, but you could

The first of the Mutual Masterpieces, De Luxe edition, will be "The Thoroughbred", released January 17. It is a drama of high finance and of fortune retrieved in the virile atmosphere of the modern west. This picture has been made by the American Film Company, Inc., at its western studios. In the cast of this stirring five-reeler are William Russell, Roy Stewart, Jack Prescott, Charlotte Burton and Lizette Thorne, all American stars of the first magnitude, whose work is well known by followers of the Mutual program. The picture is being produced under the direction of William Bartlett, the American director, whose three-part "Clipper" photoplays, released up to date in the Mutual program, are a guarantee of splendid Masterpieces. De Luxe, to come. In it will be scenes of "cattle rustling", pursuit and train fights, combined with the softening incidents of home life and of love. One of the most spectacular incidents is the blowing up of a powder mine, and the destruction of the mine manager's house.

Rita Jolivet in Historical Drama

A feature of the Big-U drama, "The Honor to Die," is the fact that it is an Italian drama, really made in Italy. Miss Rita Jolivet, the charming star of the legitimate stage, who has seen her name in the electric lights of Broadway, is the heroine of this sensational war picture.

Edith Storey, whose versatility makes her one of the most attractive and valuable film stars, is working under the direction of George D. Baker, with Antonio Moreno, in scenes that require both of them to branch out, couldn't you? Do you have to wait for somebody to commit murder or highway robbery. Why on earth don't you take up ordinary cases?"

"For instance?" Bill tried to appear distant and calm.

"I tell you one right now that I would love if I were a lawyer. And I love you, too, if you could win it. I think I'd even marry you if you won it. Little Kitty Casey's claim against the street car company. She's just out of the hospital. I coaxed mother to pay for her expenses there, or old Casey would have signed off with the street car people for two hundred cash and all expenses paid. And she's lame for life, not so she will need crutches, but just limpy. Why don't you take up her case?"

"Pretty, wouldn't it be, with my father the biggest stockholder in the company," said Bill moodily. "You certainly can pick winners, Edith. After dad has been backing me for years."

"Then settle it for her out of court. But go after it. She deserves at least five thousand, Billie."

Billie walked back to his office, pondering on the ways of woman. If anybody had acted squarely to him it was his father. He had roared him, to be sure, because he didn't make good, but still he had stood back of him and helped him pay his bill. The Casey girl had been playing in the street and had darted in front of a car coming down Black Hill. It was quite as much her fault as the motorman's. Yet he knew, too, that the men were strictly ordered to slow down on that grade, with the school at the foot of the hill, and that there had been an agitation, crushed firmly in the city council, for the company to provide a special watchman at the crossing above the school. He turned off at the corner, and made for his father's offices.

The old man was cheerful and amused.

"You're all right, Bill," he said. "But I'd prefer to have you keep out of it. Casey's agreed to accept two hundred cash."

"He'll drink it up in a month," answered Bill thoughtfully. "Where does the girl come in. Is her foot that got run over, not Casey's, dad?"

"Don't get sentimental, boy," Mr. Ronalds patted him kindly on his shoulder. "We attend to these cases in our own way, and you're after criminal practice."

"I'm going after this for practice," Bill said grimly. "I'm tired sitting around."

The following day, Bill filed his notice of suit. There followed a request for a bill of particulars, and Bill got up a beauty, with the assistance of a college pal, a chap who had hung up his doctor's sign about the same time with Bill's. Bill's family treated him with griefed silence, but Edith's smile when they met compensated for anything else.

"You've stopped loitering, haven't you, Bill dear?" she said. "I hope you win."

"Don't you forget your promise if I do," answered Bill firmly.

The company offered to settle for five hundred, and Bill smiled. The acknowledgement of liability pleased him, but he wanted more. Casey himself came around and ordered him to get off the case, but Bill had had the papers made out for Kitty with Edith appointed as court guardian, and it cut the old man out.

The day of the trial the last one to step into the crowded courtroom was old man Ronalds. He sat in a back seat and listened to his boy open the case. Kitty, nine years old, thin and freckled, sat beside her mother and Edith. When she started amid dead silence for the witness chair, dragging her foot as she walked, Ronalds put his hand over his eyes. But he took it down again. Bill's voice rang out in the courtroom.

A Hint to Mothers of Growing Children

A Mild Laxative at Regular Intervals Will Prevent Constipation.

A vital point upon which all schools of medicine seem to agree is that normal regularity of the bowels is an essential to good health. The importance of this is impressed particularly on mothers of growing children.

A very valuable remedy that should be kept in every home for use as occasion arises is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a compound of simple laxative herbs that has been prescribed by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., for more than twenty-five years, and which can now be obtained in any well stocked drug store for fifty cents a bottle.

In a recent letter to Dr. Caldwell, Mrs. H. C. Turner, 844 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., says, "I bought a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for my baby, Roland Lee Turner, and find it works just like you said it would. It is fine for the stomach and bowels."

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup

room, and the company's lawyer, a stolid old ex-judge, came back slowly. But just the picture of Kitty was enough, and everybody in the town knew the case as well as the lawyers. Bill slammed in heavily on the watchman demanded by the citizens on the school crossings, and his best witness was the motorman on the other side. Under Bill's cross examination, conducted almost gently, he lost his head and called out that it wasn't his fault anyhow. He said there wasn't a man in the cars that didn't dread those down grades, and their orders were to keep to schedule time.

"Bill wins," said the old man, under his breath, and his eyes sparkled, too, as he watched the boy stand there hammering down the arguments of old Judge Wallace.

The verdict was three thousand dollars. Some blame attached to Kitty for lack of care in playing on the streets, they held, but three thousand was a fair and moderate amount. Edith had one arm around Kitty's shoulders when Bill walked over. He didn't dare look even at the old man himself. But he was being congratulated by everybody on his first case and his courage in pushing it. Edith smiled up at him, her blue eyes full of happy tears.

"I'll marry you at Easter, Bill," she said softly.

And suddenly old Ronalds made his way toward them, and took Bill's hand in a firm grip, one hand on his shoulder.

"All to the good, Bill," he said. "I'd drop criminal practice, if I were you. You're doing well. I'd have lots of cases just to hear you hand it to Wallace. He beat me to the legislature twice."

"There's a wedding ahead, dad," said Bill. "She says I'm not a loiterer any more. I'm going to pay back every dollar you've let me have now and stand on my own feet. I hope this won't put you in wrong with the company."

"Company? Sir, I took my stock out of it last week," answered Ronalds. "I've been trying to get those watchmen on the crossings for two years, and I knew they'd get into trouble. I'm out of it, and thinking of going back into law practice with you, Bill, if you like the idea. I like your principles."

Bill smiled first at Edith, then at his father. This beat the victory over the street car company.

"We'll change the sign tomorrow, dad," he said, "to Ronalds & Ronalds."

ROLAND LEE TURNER

Pepsin should be in every home. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

LITTLE ITALIAN PRINCESS PLAYED SANTA TO WOUNDED

ROME, Jan. 2.—(By mail.)—Princess Yolanda is just finishing her task of playing Santa Claus to all the wounded soldiers in Rome. In the hospitals where this beautiful 14 year old daughter of Italy's king could not appear in person there are plenty of Christmas reminders of her activity.

For months the Princess Yolanda worked with all her royal fourteen years of enthusiasm for the Christmas trees for wounded soldiers. Indeed she was chairman of the Christmas tree committee composed of young women of the aristocracy whose thought and care it was to see that every hospital for the wounded was made bright and Christmasy. With what fervor the Princess Yolanda worked is evidenced by the wonderful Christmas trees laden with gifts which gladden these havens for Italy's brave sons of battle.

The royal family of Italy in a way transferred all its famed domesticity to these guests within their gates, for among the hospitals the one in the Quirinal is regarded as the especial property of the royal children. When the Princesses Mafalda and Giovanni had birthday celebrations and the Marionette theater from down town was transferred to the Quirinal, all the wounded soldiers who were able to walk were invited in to see the birthday performance. They gave three cheers for their royal hostesses and the two little princesses were the happiest among them all.

The crown prince regards the wounded as his proteges. This Christmas, tinged with sorrow on account of the absence of the king and the horrors of war, was given over to the soldiers. Last year the royal family, noted for its domestic simplicity, was not enlivened at Christmas on account of the serious condition of the queen. The new princess was born the twenty-seventh of December. This year what they lacked in the intimate home festivities they gained by seeing the king's soldiers happy.

The Christmas trees with the royal princess playing Santa Claus, bear gifts of cigars and cigarettes, cigar cases, watches, books, chocolate, pipes, handkerchiefs, all sorts of things, most of which the princess herself selected. Not only the hospital in the Quirinal and the one in the Villa Marguerita where the queen mother is playing a real Mrs. Santa Claus to her wounded boys, but in every sanatorium in Rome where the wounded are Christmas cheer and festivity even at this late day, gives a homey feeling to the fellows who are far from their own homes.

In every Italian town and city the same Christmas cheer is reigning, the Christmas trees are glowing for the benefit of the wounded heroes.

And the royal family, the lovely and gentle Queen Helena, the handsome crown prince, the Princesses Mafalda and Giovanni are not leaving all the honors to Yolanda despite her title of head of the Christmas trees for the wounded committee. Prince Humbert says it's a lot more fun to see the soldiers happy than to be happy all alone.

MINERS' UNION TO FIGHT BRITISH CONSCRIPTION BILL

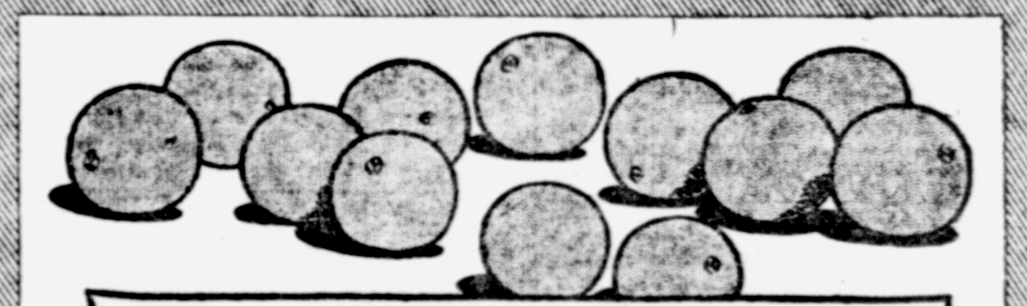

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The national federation of miners, the strongest labor union in the United Kingdom, today voted unanimously to oppose the government's conscription bill.

The delegates, however, refused to act on a proposal that a national strike be called at once in protest of the conscription measure.

Instead a substitute resolution was adopted, authorizing the executive committee to call a conference in case the conscription bill is passed, to take further steps.

There is praise for the man who takes chances and wins but only censure for the one who takes chances and loses.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

I Remember
I remember, I remember,
The house where I was born;
The little window when the sun
Came peeping in at morn.
You'd hardly know the old place now
For dad is up to date,
And the farm is scientific
From the back yard to the gate.

The house and barn are lighted With bright acetylene,
The engine in the laundry
Is run by gasoline.
We have silos, we have autos,
We have dynamos and things;
A telephone for gossip,
And a phonograph that sings.

The hired man has left us,
We miss his homely face;
A lot of college graduates
Are working in his place.
There's an engineer and fireman,
A chauffeur and a vet.,
A lecturer and mechanic—
Oh, the farm is run right, you bet.

The little window where the sun
Came peeping in at morn,
Now brightens up a bathroom
That cost a car of corn,
Our milkmaid is pneumatic
And she's sanitary, too;
But dad gets fifteen cents a quart
For milk that once brought two.

Our cattle came from Jersey,
And the hogs are all Duroc;
The sheep are Southdown beauties
And the hens are Plymouth Rock
To have the best of everything—That is our aim and plan—
For dad not only farms,
But he's a business man.

Why They Fought
Mrs. Carnes had a new maid, and while she went on a day's motor trip she ventured to leave the children in charge of the girl.
"Well, Annie," asked the mistress on her return, "how did the children behave during my absence? Nicely, I hope."
"Nicely, indeed, mum," replied the girl; "but at the end they fought terribly, mum."
"Fought?" exclaimed Mrs. Carnes.
"Why, Annie, why did they fight?"
"To decide, mum," said Annie, which was behaving the best."

Establishing Ownership
An Irish chauffeur in San Francisco, who had been having trouble with numerous small boys in the neighborhood of his stand, discovered one day, on examining his car, that there was a dead cat on one of the seats.
In his anger he was about to throw

HAIR GETS THICK,
WAVY BEAUTIFUL.
Girls! Draw a cloth through your hair and double its beauty.
Spend 25 cents! Dandruff vanishes and hair stops coming out.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.
It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itching scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time.
Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

DEATH LIST TWENTY BRANDON, Man, Jan. 14.—With the death yesterday of two of these injured in Wednesday's catastrophe, when a switch engine ploughed into a gang of workmen clearing snow from the Canadian Pacific tracks, the death list reached twenty. Four others are dying. Three were crippled for life and twenty others were injured.

ITCHING ECZEMA IS A CONSTANT BLOOD CRY

The Blood Reaches Every Part of the Body Every Twelve Seconds

There are approximately 70,000,000 pores or openings in the skin of a human body. These connect with the blood channels by means of little canals. These canals are sometimes filled with poisons, and thus the skin scales and blisters, becomes red and raw and the skin of man is like so much tissue fire. Salves and lotions, plasters, etc., do not reach the source of the trouble. To make the blood pure is the only sensible and scientific method of relief. To make the blood pure you must assist nature in the way she wants to be helped. S. S. S. is the greatest blood purifier because it is a natural one. There is not a mineral of any sort in it. It is purely vegetable in every essence. The blood welcomes S. S. S. and it quickly reaches the seat of the trouble. So great is the fame of this blood remedy that many substitutes trail along in various sections of the country. They all, sooner or later, die a natural death. S. S. S. builds up weak and atid blood, gives prompt relief to almost every case of eczema, winter tetter and other troublesome skin maladies. You owe yourself the duty of trying a bottle of S. S. S. Take no substitute. Write for our free book on skin diseases. Confidential letters replied to by our Medical expert if you will write Swift Specific Company, Department 33, Atlanta, Georgia.

There was an old farmer who was widely known as the crossiest, closest and the most generally nonlikable citizen in the whole state. Like other mean men he lived to a ripe old age, but eventually he died and his friends went ahead with plans for the funeral.
Now, it is customary, in the case of rural funerals, for those who attend, as they stand by the coffin, to murmur some eulogy of the dead. A number of farmers came in and said things which didn't square at all with the old man's life.
Finally an aged man, who had known the deceased all his life, hobbled in and stood by the coffin. The aged man was known as the most truthful man in the county. Hence the other people present waited with interest to hear what he would say.
The old man gazed down silently for a while. He paused. Finally he spoke.
"Well," he said earnestly, "nobody kin deny that he was a great hand for closin' his stable door o' nights."

Dangerous Sport
Some time ago a California representative was talking at the capitol about the sport of tuna fishing off the Pacific coast, relates The Pathfinder.
"To get them," he said, "we go out in a small motor boat and fish with a long line baited with flying fish. It is considered poor sport to catch nothing larger than a 100-pound tuna."
At this point a colored messenger who had been an interested listener stepped up and said: "Scuse me, suh, but did I understand yo to say dat yo' went fishin' for 100-pound fish in a small motorboat?"
"Yes," the Californian answered, smilingly, "we go out that way frequently."
"But," asked the wild-eyed negro, "ain't yo' feared yo' might ketch one?"
"Higher Economy
Among the Japanese economy is held to be a high virtue. Two old misers of Tokio were one day discussing ways and means of saving.
"I manage to make a fan last about 20 years," said one, "and this is my system: I don't wastefully open the whole fan and wave it carelessly. I open only one section at a time. That is good for about a year. Then I open the next, and so on until the fan is eventually used up."
"Twenty years for a good fan!" exclaimed the other. "What sinful extravagance!" In my family, we use a fan for two or three generations, and this is how we do it: We open the whole fan, but we don't wear it out by waving it. Oh, no. We hold it still, like this, under our nose, and wave our face!"—Everybody's.

INSIDE THE LINES

EARL DERR BIGGERS
Who Wrote
SEVEN KEYS TO BALTPATE
The Bobbs-Merrill Company Publishers

"Excellent Capper!" Her fingers were playing with the convolutions of the carved rosette. "Intelligent Capper! He comes to a lady's room at night to find the answer to a simple question. He shall have it. He evidently does not know the method of the Wilhelmstrasse, which is to choose two men for every task to be accomplished. One—the 'target,' we call him—goes first; our friends whose secrets we seek are allowed to become suspicious of him—we even give them a hint to help them in their suspicion. They seize the 'target,' and in time of war he becomes a real target for a firing squad, as you should have been, Capper, at Malta. Then when our friends believe they have nipped our move in the bud follows the second man—who turns the trick."
Capper was still wrestling with that baffling stubbornness of the body. Each word the girl uttered was like vitriol on his writhing soul. His mind willed murder—willed it with all the strength of hate; but still the springs of his body were cramped—by what? Not cowardice, for he was beyond reckoning results. Certainly not compassion or any saving virtue of chivalry. Why did his eyes constantly stray to that white hand lifted to allow the fingers to play with the filigree of wood on the mirror support?

"Then you engineered the stealing of my number—from the hollow under the handle of my cane—some time between Paris and Alexandria?" he challenged in a whisper, his face thrust forward between hunched shoulders.
"No, indeed. It was necessary for you to have—the evidence of your profession when the English searched you at Malta. But the loss of your number is not news; Koch, in Alexandria, has reported, of course."
The girl saw Capper's foot steal forward again. He was not six feet from her now. His wiry body settled itself ever so slightly for a spring. Louisa rose from her chair, one hand still resting on the wooden rosette of the mirror standard. She began to speak in a voice drained of all emotion.

"You followed me here tonight, Billy Capper, imagining in your poor little soul that you were going to do something desperate—something really human and brutal. You came in my window all primed for murder. But your poor little soul all went to water the instant we faced each other. You couldn't nerve yourself to leap upon a woman even. You can't leap."
She smiled on him—a woman's flaying smile of pity. Capper writhed, and his features twisted themselves in a paroxysm of hate.
"I have my finger on a bell button here, Capper. If I press it men will come in here and kill you without asking a question. Now you'd better go."

Capper's eyes jumped to focus on a round white knob under one of the girl's fingers there on the mirror's standard. The little ivory button was alive—a sentient thing suddenly allied against him. That inanimate object rather than Louisa's words sent fingers of cold fear to grip his heart. A little ivory button waiting there to trap him! He tried to cover his vanished resolution with bluster, spitting out in a tense whisper:
"You're a devil—a devil from hell, Louisa! But I'll get you. They shoot women in war time! Sir George Crandall—I know him—I did a little service for him once in Rangoon. He'll hear of you and your Wilhelmstrasse tricks, and you'll have your pretty back against a wall with guns at your heart before tomorrow night. Remember—before tomorrow night!"

Capper was backing toward the open window behind him. The girl still stood by the mirror, her hand lightly resting where the ivory knob was. She laughed.
"Very well, Billy Capper. It will be a firing party for two—you and me together. I'll make a frank confession—tell all the information Billy Capper sold to me for three hundred marks one night in the Cafe Riche—the story of the Anglo-Belgument to the affirmative after listening to a discussion of the question, "Resolved, That President Wilson's preparedness program should be adopted."

Prof. Harry Spence, J. G. Dubraks and Rev. Finch A. Clarke took the winning side of the argument, maintaining that some form of military service would act to unite the heterogeneous population of the nation. The negative declared the country to be immune from attack now as for more than hundred years in the past. The same conditions still prevail, it was argued, and even should an enemy appear, we should have ample time to prepare a defense.

C. L. Allen, H. L. Taylor and District Attorney Otto M. Schlachach spoke on the negative, and Dr. A. R. Kemper added his efforts in a short talk in which he denounced the preparedness propaganda as actuated by munition-makers from selfish motives.

The club accepted the challenge of the Eclectic debating society of the state normal school.

CATTLE FREEZE TO DEATH UPON TRAIN

Two Carloads Unloaded Here and Placed on Goddard Farm After Four Have Frozen to Death

With four already frozen to death and the others in such a pitiable condition that they were unable to continue the journey farther, two carloads of cattle from the north enroute to Chicago, were unloaded and sheltered for the night at the Goddard farm near Grand Crossing by the Burlington railroad yesterday.

Traveling in open cars through a night and day of intense cold and with snow beating in upon them, they were in such a condition they could scarcely stagger from the cars.

Six others that seemed about to die last night had so recuperated so that they could continue the journey this morning.

PRIEST BRAVED DEATH TO SEARCH DEAD BRITISHERS

LONDON, Jan. 6.—(By mail.)—How a Roman Catholic priest braved death in No Man's Land to learn the fate of his comrades in the British trenches, is a story just received from northern France. It was in one of the first line trenches, on one of the darkest, foggiest nights recently that eight British bombers of a famous regiment crawled over the parapet and disappeared in toward the enemy trenches. Dawn broke and they had not appeared. As the day advanced, it was decided as definitely certain that the bombers were either prisoners or lying dead in the muddy expanse that separated the opposing strongholds. Enemy snipers were busy and it was almost certain death to expose one's self in order to have a look.

Father—, attached to the regiment, came sauntering along the firing line. He heard the story and volunteered to try and find the bodies. He left the trench and returned garbed in his surplice, crucifix in hand. Without hesitation he climbed out of the trench and walked fearlessly but slowly toward the German lines. Men watched him breathlessly through their periscopes, expecting to see him shot down at every step. Not a shot came from the enemy side. As he reached the enemy wire entanglements, the priest was seen to stop and kneel in prayer. He remained thus for some minutes, then arose and walked until he was lost to view from the British side. Later he was rediscovered walking slowly back toward the British trench. He arrived safely and exhibited four identity discs, explaining also, that the Germans had held up four khaki caps on their bayonets. The mystery was solved, four of the bombers were prisoners, the others dead.

BRONCHITIS SUFFERER

Cured by a Simple Remedy

Columbus, Ga. "I am telling everybody what Vinol has done for my husband. He had a bronchial cough, his system was run-down and I felt sure he would die. His father insisted on his trying Vinol, and I am so thankful he did, because it cured his cough and built him up. My doctor highly recommends it and said he could not take anything better." Mrs. Thomas Monk.

Vinol, you know, contains the real cod liver curative extract, together with peptonate of iron, and beef-papone, it enriches and revitalizes the blood and conveys to the system the vital elements necessary to strengthen the body and throw off the disease. That is the reason it was so successful in Mr. Monk's case.

Anyone in La Crosse who has bronchitis, a chronic cough, or needs building up, may try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that his money will be returned if he is not satisfied.

ALL OF THE FINAL
TAILS have been completed for the Annual Ball of the United Commercial Travelers, which will be held this evening at the Elks' hall, corner of Fifth and State Streets.

Kelly's Harp orchestra of Osage, Iowa, which furnished the music for the Travelers' annual ball last year, will furnish the music this evening. This is one of the most popular orchestras in the Northwest and it is a genuine pleasure to dance after their music. The fact is you can't possibly keep still.

CITY HALL GANG GOVERNS ORLEANS BY AID OF RHYME

villain upset the plot by slaying the dragon and marrying the heroine before the hero got around to it. Martin Behrman had been mayor of New Orleans and head of the city hall ring for a good many years before commission government was adopted. Most surprisingly, he had been mayor of New Orleans ever since.

It happened like this. The reform party, otherwise known as the "Outs," started an agitation for commission government. The "Ins," otherwise known as the city hall gang, saw that commission government was making a hit. They quietly went up to Baton Rouge and induced the state legislature to pass the law authorizing the change. So the civic reform party was out of thunder. It had been talking commission government for some years, but the city hall gang had actually produced the thing.

They Are Food
So commission government in New Orleans is managed by exactly the same set of men who form the political ring of the town hall. But they do not manage it the same way. Having undertaken to become reformers, they have got to make good. Furthermore, each of them is responsible for a certain part of that good. The city hall ring has become a halo of civic righteousness. New Orleans is getting an efficient city government, and one that is gradually becoming more economical.

The five New Orleans commissioners have had a rather strenuous career. In the first place, New Orleans with its 400,000 people, is the largest city in the United States governed by a commission. Running such a town is rather a large problem in any case, and several other large things, such as the Mississippi river, bubonic plague and a West Indian hurricane, have come along to complicate it.

Like City on a Sponge
Being so nearly on a level with the river, the problem of drainage presents some distressing difficulties. It is not the most encouraging thing in the world to begin digging a foundation for a house and before you get through, have to change your mind and call it a well. Living in New Orleans used to be like living on a great big sponge. If you stuck your finger in the ground it came out wet.

That has all been fixed, thanks to the determination of the people to stick to their town and to make it habitable. Recently, an enormous drainage system has been completed, which literally takes the water out of the bottom of New Orleans. It is now possible to live in New Orleans and have not only a cellar but a dry cellar under your house.

To get the sub-surface water out and into the gulf, however, has required not only great expenditures, but remarkable feats of engineering. In some of the mains, the water is pumped five times before it is carried to the river. A sewer carries it by gravity till the sewer gets to the bottom of dry soil; then it is pumped back to the surface, and carried a little further by gravity; then pumped again and so on.

And Then the Plague
New Orleans was just ready to take a long breath after getting her drainage system bought and paid for, when a big, fat rat scuttled off a fruit steamer and slipped around a bale of cotton just in time to be stepped on by a husky roustabout. Now even a rat objects to a number line in its solar plexus, and this particular rat showed his resentment by sinking his sharp teeth into the leg of the roustabout.

The next thing New Orleans knew she was in the throes of a bubonic plague scare. There were only a few cases, but the city health authorities, the state authorities and the public health service at Washington all got busy on those cases.

"What shall we do about it?" the city commission asked the public health service.
The public health service replied that rat plague was bubonic plague. If there were no rats there would be no bubonic plague. Therefore, get rid of the rats. That was all the public health service could see to the situation. Of course, in a city as old as New Orleans, containing as many old, small buildings, crowded together on narrow streets as are all Latin towns, sitting on wood foundations or on lightly constructed brick foundations, the simple suggestion of the public health service presented difficulties. There were lots of rats and still more rat holes.

But the city of New Orleans thinks in a straight line. It gasped once, then it told the people what the situation was, passed ordinances requiring every cellar and every building in New Orleans to be rat-proofed, told the citizens how to do the job, spent half a million dollars rat-proofing the buildings owned by the city and rested on its oars. The people gritted their teeth, grinned and sent their money, a total estimated at $6,000,000. Today the public health service says New Orleans is as nearly immune to bubonic plague as any city can be.

Leaves, drainage and rat-proofing—surely that entitled the taxpayer to surcease. Surely he could now take that long breath and rest. He did—for a few weeks. Then last fall's storm hit the town. It was the worst in the history of the weather bureau. The wind reached a velocity of 131 miles an hour—the highest ever recorded in the United States. Crash went the windows, and away went the roofs. Then, when New Orleans' hat had blown away, so to speak, it rained for five days on her bare head.

All this, however, has since been forgotten. With customary willingness and good humor, New Orleans paid the bill and went merrily on her way, taxing herself for still greater improvements and planning

How Soldiers Keep Strong

Preparedness against sickness is the big, important thing to fighting soldiers. A sick soldier cannot work with vigor any more than you can work with energy when you are weak, tired, almost sick.

One efficient warring government is giving each soldier a vial of cod liver oil every day because far-reaching experiments show how wonderfully it increases the calories of human energy and gives them strength to prevent winter sickness. Is this not convincing proof that you need it at this season to enliven your blood to prevent sickness?

Cod liver oil is scarce and high-priced this season and many inferior grades may be offered. But remember that which guarantees pure cod liver oil—free from alcohol and drugs.

If you are subject to colds, throat or lung troubles; if you are easily tired, run-down or have thin blood, you should take Scott's Emulsion at once. If your children are backward in growth, frail or anæmic, nothing will do them so much good as Scott's Emulsion, and for girls and women in home or business it is nature's great strength-builder.

Scott's is not a "secret" medicine. It is a rich blood-food and a pure tonic; it contains nothing harmful and is pleasant to take. It is prescribed by physicians and liberally used in hospitals and private schools.

One bottle may prevent a sickness.
At any drug store—Start it to-day.

Imitations are sometimes offered but this Trade-Mark has stood for supreme quality for the past forty years.

ALWAYS INSIST ON SCOTT'S.

SHERMAN ATTACKS WILSON'S REVENUE

Illinois Solon Charges Sectionalism and Unfairness and Proposes Substitute

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—President Wilson's whole revenue plan was sharply attacked by Senator Sherman of Illinois as sectional, unfair and unnecessary.

He charged the plan was sectional because it laid a tax on the iron and steel industries of the north, without imposing a burden on the cotton of the south; unfair, because it proposed taxes on gas engines necessary in agriculture and industry, and because it proposed a levy on incomes as low as $1,500; and unnecessary because by economy and the defeat of such measures as the shipping bill, the need for more money might be met.

His own plan of revenue included, he said, a higher tariff, steeper surtax on incomes over $20,000 and an inheritance tax. But for the democratic free trade legislation, which would have ruined American industry save for the war, he said, emergency revenue legislation would not be necessary.

Democratic incompetency had wasted the generous balance left by the Taft administration, he said and made necessary the proposed emergency measures.

RESIDENT HERE IN EARLY DAYS DIES IN WITHEE

Death Takes Isidor Vali-quette Who Settled in La Crosse in '52, Ten Years After Foundation

One of the first of the early residents of La Crosse, Isadore Vali-quette, died late Wednesday night at the home of his daughter, at Withee, Wis. Mr. Valiquette came to La Crosse in 1852, when the village had scarcely 200 people and less than fifty houses. It was only ten years after Nathan Myrick had erected the first house on Prairie La Crosse.

The body will be brought to La Crosse Saturday evening, and funeral services will be held from the Crosse Saturday evening, and funeral services will be held from the home of Joseph Jolivet, 1209 Caledonia street, a son-in-law of the pioneer. Arrangements for the services have not been completed.

Two daughters, Mrs. Jolivet and Mrs. Frank Sturgeon, survive Mr.
Valiquette, and two sons, Henry and

surged through the streets attacking every Mexican they met.
Crying "Avenge the murdered Americans!" and "Remember the Cu-si!" the mobs soon were beyond control of the police.

(Cusi is the name of the company which employed the Santa Ysabel victims.)
Bell-boys in hotels even attacked Mexican guests.

Troops Restore Order

Brigadier General John J. Pershing ordered out the Eighth United States Infantry from Fort Bliss and personally took command of the situation. Quiet was quickly restored.

A meeting of nearly a thousand Americans just outside of El Paso, pledged themselves to avenge the massacre with an invasion of Mexico, if necessary. All were heavily armed and when a report reached them that Mexicans were gathering in another part of the city a dash was made for the Mexican meeting.

Soldiers from Fort Bliss had reached the spot first, however, and dispersed the Mexicans.

El Paso believes Villa and other Mexican bandit leaders plan a systematic and wholesale extermination of Americans in Mexico.

Reports of more Americans massacred continue to filter in.
David Kramer was reported killed by Villista bandits between Guerrero and Minica. His son, Bert, was previously reported executed.

Rodriguez Death Confirmed
The death of General Jose E. Rodriguez, a Villista chief detailed to burn the $3,000,000 Pearson mining plant at Madera, has been confirmed by Carranza authorities.

With forty followers Rodriguez approached the mills to burn them. He was surrounded by American and Mexican residents of Madera and employees of the company. The bandits surrendered.

Executed Immediately
Rodriguez and his chief of staff, Colonel Almada, were executed immediately and their followers probably will meet the same fate, according to Carranza reports.

To offset this reported Carranza victory, large armies opposed to the de facto government were said to have defeated Carranza troops at two points.

GETS THE BRITISH OFF TURKISH SOIL

General Sir W. R. Birdwood.

General Sir W. R. Birdwood is the man who deserves the credit for the successful withdrawal of the British forces from the Gallipoli Peninsula.
In a recent report to the British war office General Ian Hamilton, formerly in command of the forces at Gallipoli, tells some of the reasons why this campaign, with victory in its grasp, failed. He points out that the failure was in no way due to General Birdwood, but to the failure of Kitchener to send men at the crucial time, to the failure of the navy to land troops where needed, to the failure of General Stopford to act when he might have crushed the half beaten Turks, and to the shortage of water.

MRS. E. L. JONES SANG AT THOUSAND SPARTA FUNERALS

Rev. Harding R. Hogan Eulogizes Woman in Obituary Read at the Funeral Services

SPARTA, Wis., Jan. 14.—(Special.)—The following is the obituary read at the funeral of Mrs. Edward L. Jones, who died at her home here recently following an attack of pneumonia:

Annie Williams was born at Tre-garen, Wales, on May 3, 1867. When she was about seven years of age, she lost both her parents and went to live with an uncle in Tregaren.

In 1879, when she was twelve years of age, they came to Ameri-

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed with Sulphur
It Brings Back Its Lustre and Abundance.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wis-py and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young!
Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair;
besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly.
You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

HOLMES VICTOR IN HIS FIRST SUIT

Young Attorney Wins Initial Circuit Court Case in Real Estate Commission Matter

Arthur F. Holmes, attorney with the law firm of Morris & Hartwell, today won the first circuit court suit in which he ever participated.
The victory brought a verdict of judgment for $175 to J. P. Saltz, North side real estate dealer, against Mrs.
Engelbort Jensen. Mrs. Jensen placed property in the hands of Saltz to be sold. Afterwards she sold the property herself and refused to pay the real estate dealer his commission.
The jury deliberated more than three hours.

Judge Higbee excused the jurymen until January 25. No cases requiring them will be heard until that date. Tomorrow will be motion day and Monday the court case calendar will be commenced.

Attorney C. H. Schweizer, counsel for the General Motor Car company, today filed an affidavit of prejudice.
The concern is suing F. X. Dietz, taxicab garage owner, for the recovery of a sum of money for damages occurring to an automobile which one of the Dietz machines is alleged to have struck.

OFFICIALS REFUSE M. & J. SUBSCRIPTION

today, however, that he had not been approached by any representative of the club.

Mahoney Attitude Unchanged
Asked if he had changed his attitude on the subject, Mr. Mahoney said that he had not. He denied that he intended to start injunction proceedings, but said that his position remained the same as it was when he voiced his objections in the council. At that time it was understood that he was threatening legal proceedings, but Mr. Mahoney refused today to make any statement which would reconcile the apparently contradictory statements.

Because he believes that personal hostility to himself because of bitterness aroused in a council debate may be the cause of Alderman Mahoney's objection to the city lending aid to the rate campaign, President Mac-Willie announced today that he would not accept re-election as president of the M & J club.

her presence.

Her husband, three brothers, Rev.

The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Harding R. Hogan, at the home on South Water street and she was laid to rest in Woodlawn.

The Tomah Cash Mercantile company is fitting up a splendid rest room for women and children. Up to this time, they have had a small place fitted up with a table and chairs, but it has not been large enough to meet the demands of the public. When completed, the room will be three times its present size, and besides the comfortable chairs,
will have a davenport, and a baby's crib. It will make an ideal place for the farmers' wives to stay when in town.

FORMER SEATTLE MAN GETS BRIDE ON BATTLEFRONT

LONDON, Jan. 14.—One of the real romances of the war will culminate soon at Amsterdam in the marriage of Lieutenant H. G. Rawlins, Bournemouth, Eng., formerly of Seattle, Wash., to Miss E. De Jong. At the outbreak of the war Lieutenant Rawlins, living in Seattle, enlisted at the office of the British consul there. Returning to England, he was commissioned an officer in the Royal Naval division and went to Antwerp with Winston Churchill's naval brigade. Rawlins met his future bride in the military hospital at Amsterdam after his brigade was forced to retreat into Holland.
The hospital was in charge of Dr.
De Jong, who often brought his comely daughter to visit the wounded. It was love at first sight when she saw Lieutenant Rawlins.

are expected to begin at once. No definite period has been set for the continuance of the armistice, but it is believed possible that Montenegro, apparently the first of the allied powers to strike her colors to the Austro-Germans, will arrange tentative peace terms before the end of the month.

Many Expected to Reject

Italian military men, however, have little doubt but that thousands of Montenegrin soldiers will reject the peace arrangement, take to the mountains and continue to war on the Austrians until they are exterminated.

The Montenegrin legation today had no confirmation of the reports that a truce has been signed by General Koyevs, the Austrian commander and King Nicholas, but was inclined to accept it as true. The Italian foreign office also was without confirmation.

KULCYNSKI QUILTS HORNE'S TOSSERS QUARREL CAUSE?

Long Standing Disagreement with Captain Kelly Rumored Reason for Resignation

TOMAH IS HERE TONIGHT

Horne Will Have a Strong Combination Despite a Split in the Squad

On the eve of what is expected to be one of the hardest battles of the year Coach Horne is facing a decided and dangerous split in his basket ball five. The men have not been pulling together as they should the past week and things reached a climax Wednesday evening when Kulcynski handed in his uniform.
His reasons are not definitely known but rumors have it that a quarrel of long standing between him and Captain Kelly caused Horne to advance an ultimatum which the speedy center could not accept. Horne is trying to arbitrate but it is doubtful whether he will be successful.

Despite this the high school athletic mentor will have a team of huskies which will be hard to beat in the Tomah game tonight. It is doubtful whether Grenzner or Kelly will be able to don suits but Layman, Zeisler, Blatter, Bott and Roellig will form a combination which has been one of the "best bets" since they have been tried together. This will, in all probability, be the five that starts although Schall, Garder, Regel and Sanders are giving them a hard fight for their positions.

that our assets are clean and liquid; and to the fact that we have always been

NELSONS PREMIERS ON TOTALS BUT ARE THIRD IN THE RACE

Four of Team's Members Hold Highest Places in Individual Averages

Despite the fact that they are in third place in the percentage column, the Nelsons of the City league lead in game totals averages with $90. Four members of the team, also, lead in individual averages.
This is contained in a report of Secretary John G. Koblit, which follows:

"It is interesting to note that although the Nelsons are in third place in the percentage column they have the highest average for teams and also that four of the Nelsons are among the high five in the individual averages.

The Nelsons have a handicap of 11 pins a game, and the Gundes get 15 pins when they have their regular team. Eleven pins is the lowest handicap at present and 84 pins the highest, the latter being given to the Roths. More game have been rolled this year than for some years past and consequently teams getting the lowest handicaps have a much harder time to win. It is expected that by the end of the season the lower teams at present will give the better teams a hard rub for the first four places in the percentage column.

"An interesting series is looked for Tuesday evening when the Gundes and the Nelsons meet, there being only four pins difference in the handicaps.

"The general five-man team average including games rolled during the week ending January 7 for teams in the City league are as follows:

Without handicaps:
Nelson Clothing company . . . $90
Gundes . . . . . $75
Eagles . . . . . $55
Maders . . . . . $15
Postmen . . . . . $15
Leader-Press . . . . . $99
Studebakers . . . . . $65
Roths . . . . . $65 Individual averages over 175

are as follows including games rolled week ending January 7:

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to flush Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days.
This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.
Here you have a pleasant, effective lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

FAMOUS POET TO LECTURE FEB. 7TH

John Masfield, Poet and Sailor, Will Be at Normal School; in U. S. but a Short Time

John Masfield, the distinguished English sailor poet, will be in this city to give a lecture at the normal school on February 7, despite the fact that rumors have been afloat that the English poet had gone to the front for the purpose of relieving the wounded. Mr. Masfield arrived in the United States on January 8 to fill the dates of his lectures which will carry him through the east and middle went on an eight week trip. He has been showered with invitations since his arrival in this country.

John Masfield is regarded by many readers as the outstanding figure of present day English poetry.
His most significant work lies in his long narrative poems but he is also the author of many shorter works.
His poems touch the human note in a strong manner, the common experiences in his varied life aiding him greatly in his work.

ROAD REFUSES TO STOP FAST TRAINS

Plea of De Soto and La Crosse Merchants Turned Down by Superintendent Flynn

FIGHT IS NOT TO BE DRIPPED

Merchants' Association to Keep Up Efforts to Better Service Between Cities

Efforts of business men of La Crosse and of De Soto, Wis., to have Burlington through trains No. 48 and 51 stopped at that city will be continued despite a refusal of Superintendent E. Flynn of the La Crosse division to entertain the request. This was the statement of Secretary Harry Taggart of the Retail Merchants' association of La Crosse, which accompanied his announcement of Superintendent Flynn's refusal today.

The question of better service between La Crosse and De Soto was taken up simultaneously in both cities. Albert Broadhead and Richard Loftus circulated a petition to the railroad which received the signatures of all the business men of De Soto. Independently the merchants' association here was working to the same end.

Mr. Flynn's letter of refusal says: "No doubt it would be convenient for many of the signers of the petition, but a great many would not use the trains. The trains, 48 and 51, are through trains and for through traffic and to stop them would defeat the purpose for which they are run." The matter will be taken up at the next meeting of the Merchants' association.

SPOTLIGHTS

PRESIDENT WILSON AND "DADDY LONG-LEGS"

When Woodrow Wilson was running for the presidency three years ago, a party of newspaper reporters from New York, Philadelphia and Washington visited him in his home at Princeton, N. J., to ask him about his plans if he were elected. Mr. Wilson's skill at dodging leading questions is now known throughout the land. At that time reporters were more hopeful.

"It is much easier to talk about the immediate past than the indefinite future," he observed to his callers, with the quiet Wilson smile. "And I should like to talk to you about the immediate past," he added. "I have just finished reading the most charming story that has come to my attention in some years. Its title is as interesting as the story. It is 'Daddy Long-Legs,' and, I understand, was written by a niece of Mary Twain."

The reporters gently endeavored to switch the conversation to tariff and the currency, but the future president could not be turned from "Daddy Long-Legs". When the reporters left, they knew a great deal about Jean Webster's book, but nothing about the Wilson policies.

Two years ago, when Henry Miller accepted Miss Webster's dramatization of her own book, "Daddy Long-Legs", he decided to produce it in Washington. One of the first requests for seats came from the White House, and stated that the president required a box for the opening night. Mr. Wilson followed the comedy with more than his usual interest in good plays and subsequently sent word to the author that much to his surprise, the play had proved better than the story. He did not mention to Miss Webster, however, that the story had once served excellently as a "Wilson excuse."

Miss Webster's delightful comedy is to be presented at the La Crosse theater on Monday, January 17.

MISS WILSON HAS OPERATION

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 14.—Miss Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the president, underwent an operation at Jefferson hospital yesterday during which adenoids and her tonsils were removed. At the hospital it was stated Miss Wilson was resting well.

Doughnuts

That will remain moist.

Every housewife who bakes her own bread knows that if a little potato is added to the sponge, the bread will not dry out as quickly. In this recipe potato is utilized to make doughnuts that will remain moist and fresh for several days.

K C will be found to have distinct advantages over any other Baking Powder for doughnuts. K C is a double acting baking powder with which a large batch of doughnuts may be mixed and fried a few at a time. The last will be as light and nice as the first.

K C Potato Doughnuts

By Mrs. Nevada Briggs, of Baking School fame.

3 1/2 cups flour; 2 eggs; 1 cup sugar; 1 level teaspoonful K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; 1/2 teaspoonful mace; 1 cup cold mashed potato; 1 cup milk, or more if needed.

Sift three times, the flour, salt, spice and baking powder. Beat eggs with rotary beater, then still using rotary beater, gradually add sugar, then work in the mashed potato with a spoon and alternately add milk and flour mixture. Make a soft dough, roll into a sheet, cut into rounds, pinch a hole in the center with the finger and fry in deep fat.

Fat for frying should not be hot enough to brown the doughnut until it has risen. When the doughnut is dropped into the fat it sinks to the bottom. As soon as it comes up it should be turned and turned a number of times while cooking. This recipe is excellent as they do not take the fat in frying and will stay moist for days.

PRESBYTERIANS IN ANNUAL MEETING

The annual business meeting of the First Presbyterian church congregation was held at the parlors of the church Wednesday, at which time trustees and elders were elected and reports received from the various societies and departments of the church work. These reports showed a prosperous and encouraging condition existing in all branches of the church. George H. Gordon, W. L. Smith and Ole Elbertson were re-elected as members of the board of trustees; J. G. Moore was re-elected deacon; and James Stormont, A. B. Reser, F. P. Maries and John McCurdy succeed themselves as elders.

Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Jamaica, N. Y.—"I suffered greatly with my head and with backache, was weak, dizzy, nervous, with hot flashes and felt very miserable, as I was irregular for two years. One day when I was feeling unusually bad my sister-in-law came in and said, 'I wish you would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.' So I began taking it and I am now in good health and am cured. I took the Compound three times a day after meals, and on retiring at night. I always kept a bottle in the house." — Mrs. L. N. BURNHAM, 35 Globe Ave., Jamaica, N. Y.

BRYAN CALLS POLICY OF ADMINISTRATION IN MEXICO PROPER

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 14.—William J. Bryan, discussing the massacre in Mexico, said: "The demand for intervention in Mexico is in harmony with the general policy pursued by the jingoes. They want war with somebody, and seize upon the first excuse to call for war."

"I heartily commend the stand which the president is reported to have taken against intervention. I believe that in taking this position he represents the views of a large majority of the American people. Carranza has been recognized and will doubtless do his best to apprehend and punish those guilty of murdering Americans and other foreigners. There is no need for intervention without losing all that has been gained in Latin-America during the last half century. If intervention was entered upon the jingoes who are demanding it would demand annexation and we would be under suspicion until our forces were withdrawn."

HEAVY ARTILLERY INCREASE ADVANCED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Enormous increase of the United States artillery strength, costing between $200,000 and $300,000, it was learned here, is recommended in a new, confidential report to Secretary of War Garrison by a war college board. Drawn by Colonel Treat, the report is based on information of army observers in Europe.

That the American artillery corps be quadrupled and hundreds of heavier guns added, is recommended.

THE SILO

The Wisconsin Farm and Home Week to be held in Madison, Feb. 7-12, promises to be of exceptional service to the farmers and farm women of the state.

Besides marking the 25th mile stone in Wisconsin's dairy progress since the invention of the Babcock milk test and the establishment of the Wisconsin Dairy school, the program will include a number of very distinct and attractive features.

For the men, it provides special courses in drainage, in creamery management, in cow testing, in the operation of gas engines and tractors, and in addition, instruction in poultry raising, dairying, orcharding, farm engineering, gardening, crop production, farm management, in fact, practically all of the important lines of farming carried on in this state.

For the women, the course will offer helpful and practical instruction in the different phases of home making.

A GIRL'S COMPLEXION

Very few girls get through their teens without eruptions or pimples showing on their faces.

These may be due to indigestion resulting from improper diet. If they will quickly disappear when the proper food is adhered to. If they are accompanied by pallor and listlessness you must look to the condition of the blood.

Because these eruptions on the faces of school girls are so common they seldom receive the attention from parents that they require. When they indicate thin blood or anemia there is a ready remedy in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These tonic pills, free from harmful drugs, are pretty sure to help growing girls because they build up the blood at a time when the demand on it is greatest. As the blood is made rich and red, healthy appetites become normal, lassitude gives way to vigor, the cheeks and lips show the glow of health and the whole system is toned up. The nervous system is invigorated and with proper attention to diet many dangers are averted.

Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. The pamphlet, "Building Up the Blood," is free on request.

PROMINENT LANSING WOMAN DIES AT THE AGE OF 80 YEARS

Death Comes Suddenly to Mrs. Catherine Zabolitsky at Her Home Monday

LANSING, Iowa, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Mrs. Catherine Zabolitsky, widow of the late P. Zabolitsky, died suddenly Monday. She was at church in the morning and at about 11 o'clock, while assisting in the preparation of dinner, was stricken with a severe pain in the heart. A doctor was summoned, but she never lost consciousness and was thought to be improving till shortly before 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when she suffered another attack and passed away just as the Angelus was pealing forth praise to God in the bellry of the Immaculate Conception church, close by.

Her maiden name was Catherine Klug. She was born in 1834 in Hesse Darmstadt, Frankfurt, emigrating to America in 1854, and in 1856, at Union Mills, Ind., became the wife of Peter Zabolitsky, who preceded her to the grave fourteen years ago. They came to Lansing first in 1856 or 1857 but returned to Indiana, where they remained until 1866, when they settled on a farm in this township, which was the family home until they moved to town twenty-two years ago. Mrs. Zabolitsky is survived by three daughters and one son, as follows: Sister Laugina, of Edger, Wis.; Mrs. Elizabeth Weber, Miss Rose, and Peter, all of this city. Another daughter, Anna, died when but eight years old in Indiana. The funeral was held from the Catholic church in this city at 9:30 a. m. last Wednesday.

Edith Towle Dies

The community was shocked on Wednesday morning to learn of the passing away of Miss Edith Towle, at the local hospital, about 2 a. m., as a result of an operation she underwent last Thursday.

Deceased was aged about twenty-two years, and since graduating from the Lansing high school class of 1912, has been teaching school whenever her services could be spared from home, where she was the mother's mainstay. The saying, "death loves a shining mark" was never more exemplified than in the case of Miss Towle.

In addition to the pictures, some special programs will be given. All of the profits made from this proposition will be invested in pictures for the new building.

Mr. Harold L. Klug and Miss Florence Nightingale will arrive Saturday to take up their work in the high school. Mr. Klug is a graduate of DeKalb Normal and will have charge of the manual training and agriculture. Miss Nightingale is a graduate of the Stevens Point Normal and will have charge of the domestic science and music work. Next week will be spent in getting the new courses outlined and the new equipment in place. It is now expected that the new building will be ready for use by January 24, when the second semester begins. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the program this Friday evening to be given by the Alpha Beta Chi society, as it will be a very good program.

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

Open sluices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

"Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach. The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast and it is said to be but a little while until the roses begin to appear in the cheeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.

BEST LIVER AND BOWEL LAXATIVE FOR FAMILY USE

'Cascarets' regulate women, men and children without injury.

Fake when bilious, headache, for colds, bad breath, sour stomach.

Instead of nasty, harsh pills, salts, castor oil or dangerous calomel, why don't you keep Cascarets handy in your home? Cascarets act on the liver and thirty feet of bowels so gently you don't realize you have taken a cathartic, but they act thoroughly and can be depended upon when a good liver and bowel cleansing is necessary—they move the bile and poison from the bowels without griping and sweeten the stomach. You eat one or two at night like candy and you wake up feeling fine, the headache, biliousness, bad breath coated tongue, sour stomach, constipation, or bad cold disappears. Mothers should give cross, sick, feverish or bilious children a whole 'Cascarets' any time—they are harmless and safe for the little folks.

CONSCRIPTION IS OBJECT OF ATTACK OF ANOTHER UNION

British National Railwaymen's Body Challenges Government to Pass the Bill

GENERAL STRIKE IS HINTED AT

Workers Say Only Wealth, Their Labor Powers, Should Not Be Taken Away

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The National Railwaymen's union, one of the strongest labor organizations in Great Britain, today defied the government to enact the conscription bill.

In the most drastic resolution yet adopted by any labor body, the executive committee of the railway men declared their organization will resist conscription to the uttermost. They hinted at an immediate strike of all railway workers of Great Britain if the bill passes parliament.

"Unless the government is prepared to confiscate the wealth of the privileged classes for the more successful prosecution of the war," read the resolution, "The railroad workers will resist to the uttermost the confiscation of men, whose only wealth is their labor power."

The executive committee declared the railway workers overwhelmingly opposed to any form of conscription. They have not receded, they said, from the position they took several months ago when they warned the government that an attempt to enforce conscription would be followed by a general strike.

The drastic action of the railwaymen, coupled with the anti-conscription resolutions adopted by representatives of 800,000 miners yesterday, unquestionably has caused the government concern. Premier Asquith conferred informally today with members of the cabinet. It was rumored that efforts were being made to amend the bill, before the final vote is taken, to eliminate objections of the railwaymen and miners.

GERARD IS SOME HUNTER—GETS TWO DEER IN ONE SHOT

BY CARL W. ACKERMAN

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
BERLIN, Dec. 19.—(By mail.)—Out hunting today with the American military attache in Berlin, Colonel Kuhn, Ambassador Gerard killed two small deer with one shot, the colonel, on the other hand, fired two shots without hitting a deer.

Did Gerard's friends not know that he was an expert crack-shooter, miss-aim rifleman, they would think this an accident, but this is the second time this winter that Gerard killed two deer with one shot! Today it happened thus:

Gerard and the colonel went out to the ambassador's game preserve near Berlin. Two small deer appeared. Gerard fired at one. The bullet went through its heart, struck a rib, glanced off the side and went through the second deer! More game appeared and the officer took a shot and another shot, but the deer disappeared.

On the way home Gerard decided he would like to bag a duck for dinner because Mrs. Gerard's mother is visiting here and likes duck. It

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Reiteration of the administration's determination not to intervene in Mexico caused a general advance today in stocks which were driven down yesterday in the belief that American soldiers might be sent into Mexican territory.

Mexican Petroleum opened at

The general list opened firm with small gains in many active stocks. American Coal Products was a leader in strength gaining 3 1/4c at $1.64. United States Steel was up 1/4c at $5 1/2-2c. Crucible opened 1 1/2c up and soon advanced to 63, a gain of three points over yesterday's close.

Crucible Steel sold up 6 7/8 points to 65 7/8 this afternoon, taking the rest of the list upward with it. It was rumored Charles M. Schwab had obtained control. Bethlehem Steel jumped 25 points to 455. United States Steel remained stationary at 55 1/2.

Mexican complications disappeared as a topic of concern on the street. To the Schwab story bull traders added stories of gigantic new war orders.

Crucible Steel sold at 66 1/2 at 2 p. m., reached 67 1/2 at one time. Fifty-five thousand shares had been traded, total sales for all stock at that hour, being 468,000. The market had turned comparatively quiet in mid-afternoon, with prices near the day's high marks.

The market closed strong.

Chicago Grain Review

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Commission house sales in the face of firmer cables encouraged bears in the wheat pit today and early gains were short-lived. May wheat sold 1 1/2c down at $1.27 and July 1 1/4c down at $1.20 1/2, after opening fractionally higher.

Corn was heavy from the start and the market seemed bare of buying orders. May sold 1 1/2c down from the opening at 79c and July 1/2c down at 79 1/4c.

Oats was influenced by other grains after a higher opening and lost more than the fractional gain at the start. May sold at 50 1/2c and July at 48 1/2c.

Provisions, active and irregular early, showed decline later.

ITALIAN SOLDIERS HAD NICE CHRISTMAS

BY ALICE ROHE
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
ROME, Dec. 26.—(By mail.)—Italy's boys in the trenches had a royal Christmas. Best of all their Christmas gifts was Christmas dinner in steam heated trenches. With their modern trench improvements they had the best of it over some of the girls left behind them. For sunny Italy has the coldest interiors and the poorest heating facilities in all the world. In the trenches however, up where the snow is heavy and the rains are freezing in the mountains, the steam heated trenches are driving away the terrors of a winter campaign.

The sending of gifts to soldiers at the front was one of the most touching of all Christmas activities. Everyone wanted to send something. A poorly clad woman entered one of the stations where special boxes of sweets, ready for sending to soldiers, were on sale. She had only 16 soldi. The boxes were one franc fifty.
"I'll buy something," she said. "I've no one at the front now. My boy's fallen at Col di Lana but I want to send some little comfort to some other mother's boy." She bought a small package of sweets for 16 cents and some mother's boy must have felt a different quality in that dearer purchased remembrance.

The order that chocolate and sweets could not be sent privately to soldiers at the front caused such a wail that parliament decided to change the order. The order had been given because of the fear that poisoned sweets from suspicious and concealed quarters might reach the soldiers. Enough evidence had come to the ears of the authorities to warrant this action. It was this same fear that resulted in the public cigar and cigarette collection stations being abandoned. The opportunity for enemies sending poisoned cigars or cigarettes offered too strong a temptation to evil minds.
The discovery of poisoned tobacco brought the decisive order. Thousands of cigars were destroyed and the order was that thenceforth only money would be accepted to buy cigars from government supply stores.
At Christmas time the bars were down for chocolate and sweets. In the fact of Christmas sentiment, voiced by mothers and sweethearts, wives and children, law and precaution stepped aside. And the rush of bundles of candy and chocolate, of tobacco and all sorts of presents, has appalled the postal clerks.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

(By United Press)
OATMAN, Ariz., Jan. 13.—How would you like to walk forty miles every time you took a bath? That's what the citizens of this place have to do. Either that, or pay 20 cents a gallon for water.
The mining boom is making the town grow at the rate of about 100 persons a day. The local water supply has to be teamed from Needles, Cal., forty miles away. One enterprising citizen has a tent that brings him in $250 a month. He has installed eight cots which he rents at $1 each a night.

Events In The War One Year Ago Today

The titanic struggle called the Battle of Soissons raged undecided. A Belgian town in Courtrai was fined $2,500,000 because citizens obeyed rules made by one German governor which his successor did not like.

OLD PRINTER FROM SAN FRANCISCO IS SERBIAN TEACHER

He Says Austrian Crown Prince Was Killed by Prinzip Because of Invasion Plot

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
MONASTIR, Serbia, Dec. 26.—

(By mail.)—When No. 25 Polk street rattled down in the San Francisco earthquake, the newspaper plant of Sloboda was destroyed and Valdimir Midzor, the editor, was penniless. So after eleven years in California he came back to Serbia and—here he is in Monastir.

There's only one interesting thing about Valdimir Minzor and that will come later. His talk, which I have heard this evening in a little cafe, is full of information of and out of the way sort.

"I'm a school teacher now," he said. "In a little country school. I get $20 a month and have to pay my own board. But school hasn't been going anywhere in Serbia for more than a year. The money was needed for war. I had fifty-five pupils and I used to teach them reading, writing, arithmetic and Serbian history."

"What did you teach the girls?"
"There weren't any girls. Serbian country folks think girls will go wrong if they are taught too much, so they keep them home. Our school hours were different from those in San Francisco. We began school at 9 in the morning and closed at noon. We opened it again at 3 and closed at 5. We had sessions six days a week, but the children were free on Saturday afternoons. Isn't this war terrible? I remember how the children used to come across the fields and down the roads with their school books and dinner baskets, but in all Serbia today there aren't any children with school books and the schools are sleeping places for soldiers."

"God only knows how many. Serbia has been fighting for the last four years, off and on. She started with 400,000 men. It's safe to say that 150,000 of them have been killed in battle. If every man represents a family of five persons that means 600,000 orphans and 150,000 widows. The population of old Serbia was only 2,900,000. That is only about half the population of New York, but you kill 300,000 young men in New York in the next four years and see the hole it makes in your home and business life."

"Yes, it was; Gabrielle Prinzip. His father is a rich commission merchant in Herzegovina and Gabrielle was a bright young student. He didn't know that the shot he fired that day would start a world war. He was too young to be executed and he's in an Austrian jail somewhere. "I bet, though, he doesn't know what trouble his shot caused. The Austrians would keep it away from him. My nephew went to school with Gabrielle and knew him well. He was a fine, intelligent young fellow and he knew, as all the intelligent young Serbs knew, that the crown prince of Austria intended to invade Serbia as soon as he came into power. Gabrielle had a good time at Semlin, across the river from Belgrade, for a month before the assassination at Sarajevo. He gave parties and it came out at the trial that he divided $4,000 with pals who were to help him. He knew what he was expected to do. The crown prince of Austria didn't have a single chance for his life that Sunday in Sarajevo. He was a dead man as soon as he entered the town. If one of the conspirators missed him another was bound to get him. It just happened that the royal automobile came Gabrielle's way."

"But Serbia is invaded anyhow, isn't it?" I asked.

"Yes," sadly, "but not by the crown prince. Besides, we have England, France and Russia on our side." Midzor used to be secretary to one of those Slavic lodges which, from time to time, march through the streets of almost every American city carrying lettered banners no one can read and celebrating holidays few Americans understand. Every year he used to go to Chicago to the convention of the Slavic lodges. He was always a part of the convention parades of Slavs, Czechs and other queer Balkan people who spend most of their time in the mines of the United States and who mystify Americans whenever they come to the surface and dress up in their Sunday clothes.

The interesting thing about Midzor is that, little as Americans know of Slavs, Midzor and many of his brethren know a great deal about Americans.

Every Fourth of July Midzor used to print his paper, Sloboda, in red. And his Fourth of July edition always carried a translation of the American Declaration of Independence, in full.

In Serbia, Sloboda means liberty.

AMERICANS HAVE MUCH TROUBLE IN GETTING PASSPORTS

LONDON, Jan. 14.—When is an American not an American? That is a hard nut to crack, according to the American embassy in London. Rather, it is a whole bushel of hard nuts to crack. But some of the nuts have been cracked, it was learned today, with the result that scores of "Americans" in England are now without a country.

The issuance of passports is one of the embassy's most troublesome duties. Numerous Americans who have resided in England for ten, fifteen or twenty years, decided after the war began, and more particularly after the Zeppelins put London on their calling list, that they had better inquire into their citizenship. All wanted American passports. Some wanted to go back to America. Others were bound for France or other comparatively Zeppelin-less climes. There was the rub.

Passport officials at Uncle Sam's London address struggled with the problem. The applicants, many of them with English accents, so long had they been out of touch with the Statue of Liberty, were forced to answer imposing lists of questions, which were forwarded to the state department at Washington.

The department of state, acting on a musty and long unused law, decreed that to be recognized as an American in a foreign country, a person must report to the proper American authorities at various times, duly pay taxes in America if he or she has enough property to be taxed; or make a visit home once in a while. A great many Anglicized Americans had failed in this, in whole or in part. They are now persons without a country. A passport is required to go "most anywhere" at present. So America's lost citizens are marooned—in England.

WOMEN BAKERS OF FRANCE DEMAND HUSBANDS' RETURN

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

PARIS, Dec. 21.—(By mail.)—The women bakers of France have just threatened the government with a strike that would be unique in the world's history. Neither shorter hours nor increased pay is demanded. All they want is their husbands and they insist that unless those husbands are recalled from the colors and restored to their bake ovens they will quit and starve the government into acquiescence.

The ultimatum of the women of France has just been delivered to the government by a committee headed by Madame Preleux of Arcueil-Cachan, president of the Ligue des Boulangeres, or women bakers' union. She supplemented the com-

Home made bread is unknown in France. The business of baking is extensive and all-essential. Nine out of ten small businesses are jointly conducted by husband and wife, and the occupation of baker is one that lends itself peculiarly to this arrangement.
